

LAET's Legal Information Series

Available at Public Libraries

KNOXVILLE – Legal Aid of East Tennessee (LAET) has completed production and distribution of a video series called “The Anytime Attorney: Legal Information On Demand 24/7.” The series addresses civil legal issues in Tennessee law such as Orders of Protection, Divorce, Rental Housing, Foreclosure, Representing Yourself in General Sessions Court, and Bill Collectors.

DVD copies of “The Anytime Attorney” are available for check-out at public libraries in the 26 East Tennessee counties LAET serves. The videos are also available online anytime at www.laet.org, through links on selected public library websites, and on “LAET’s Anytime Attorney” channel on YouTube.

Counties served by LAET are: Bledsoe, Blount, Bradley, Carter, Cocke, Grainger, Greene, Hamblen, Hamilton, Hancock, Hawkins, Jefferson, Johnson, Knox, Loudon, Marion, McMinn, Meigs, Monroe, Polk, Rhea, Sequatchie, Sevier, Sullivan, Unicoi, & Washington.

Production of the video series was funded by a grant from the federal Legal Services Corporation (LSC) through its Technology Innovation Grant program.

For more information on the “Anytime Attorney” video series contact Bill Evans, LAET’s Director of Marketing & Communications, at (865) 251-4948 or bevans@laet.org.
